

WALT share our cultural practices so we have understanding of differences between me and others, which leads to empathy and tolerance of all people in our world.